Famine Menaces Hungary

Budapest Radio Begg Country to Struggle Back to Normal; All Rebel Radios Silent

VIENNA (AP)—Budapest radio announced today famine threatens revolt-torn Hungary. It begged the country in the name of the Russians' puppet government to struggle back to normal.

Rebel radios fell ominously silent. One of the last broadcasts heard here said fighting continued near Budapest "with unchanging violence."

From Geneva, the International Red Cross committee asked the Soviet government to negotiate with the Hungarian combatants for an immediate truce in the battle of Budapest to permit evacuation of wounded.

Numerous casualties of street fighting at noon yesterday were reported lying where they fell and cut off from medical aid.

Within the Hungarian capital, ringed by Soviet tanks in formations that resembled siege lines, Radio Budapest urged all foodstuff workers to return to their jobs at once.

So urgent was the situation that the government ordered trucks engaged in transport of provisions to identify them as food trucks.

Soviet troops will give every possible assistance to keep such food supplies moving, the broadcast said. The Soviet military commander ordered the 7 p. m. curfew lifted in the case of food trucks to permit them to operate day and night.

The same broadcast indicated a severe shortage of shoes and clothing. It appealed to pawn shops to return all shoes and clothing worth less than 500 forints—about $45 at the official rate—to their owners without payment of premiums and present the pawn slips to the Finance Ministry.

The Soviet-installed puppet government of Premier Janos Kadar pleaded for resumption of normal life in Hungary, but admitted the rebellion against Russian domination was not fully crushed.

Earlier reports said scattered pockets of insurgents were fighting on against heavy Soviet blows aimed at wiping out the last remnants of Hungary's rebellion.

Radio Free Europe's listening post in Munich reported that the rebel radio transmitters were still today.

"Our monitors have not been able to pick up any rebel broadcasts since last night," a spokesman said, "and that's very discouraging."

The earlier rebel reports made it clear that time was running out in many desperate, last-ditch stands. One unidentified station in the Pecs region said:

"Thursday will be the last day on which we shall be able to resist Russian attacks. Our ammunition and our food supplies are running short."

"Blood is the only thing we still have to offer."

Radio Budapest, now controlled by the Russians, claimed in its first newscast today that peace had been restored. But it broadcast a statement of the Provisional Central Committee of the Hungarian Socialist Workers (Communist) party saying:

"We appeal to all members of the party to rally together in this critical time to smash the counter-revolution. Though peace has been restored in Budapest and in all the provinces, the situation is still serious and difficult."

Six Days Are Left—

United Fund Drive Is Over Half Way Mark to Goal of $75,000

The $75,000 goal of the Sedalia-Pettis County United Fund campaign is now within reach, according to a statement made this morning by James T. Denny, the drive's general chairman.

A preliminary audit made this morning reveals a total of $45,410.34 has already been secured in contributions and commitments turned in at the campaign headquarters.

"We are all very much encouraged and stimulated by this splendid showing," Denny said. "At the same time, we realize a big job remains to be done in the next six days."

Principal handicap faced by the big worker staff that is seeking contributions is the task of seeing all potential contributors. "The overall response has been excellent," it was pointed out by Abe Silverman, chairman of the advance gifts division. "The great majority of those contacted by my division has been both liberal and realistic in contributing. However, we have completed handling of only about half our prospects, and it is now simply a matter of winding up what is left."

David Routsong, chairman of the men's division called attention to the only difficulty encountered by workers in his division. "Our job would be much easier," he noted, "if people would be a little more cooperative about making their contribution when they are first contacted instead of asking our workers to call back. We earnestly ask that every business establishment in the city that has not yet made its contribution to this vital drive please be prepared to do so between now and Monday noon."

Mrs. J. W. Boger, who heads the women's division, voiced the same appeal on behalf of her workers. "The job of contacting some 5,000 families is a terrific challenge in itself," she noted, "but it is made much greater if repeated call backs are necessary. We will be grateful if the housewives throughout Sedalia will help us to reach our goal by being prepared to make their contributions when our worker calls."

"This is the year we can really put our United Fund drive over the top," Denny stated, "but it means a real job of work by everyone associated with the effort, plus outstanding cooperation from all contributors who have not yet been contacted. This is not mere wishful thinking. Of the 210 unit prospects in the advance gift section, (Please turn to page 8 column 5)

Millionaire Marshal Field Is Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—Marshall Field III, multimillionaire philanthropist and head of Field Enterprises, died today at New York Hospital. He was 63.

His wife Ruth was at his bedside.

Field was taken to the hospital Oct. 21. The following day he underwent brain surgery. Until today he had been described as in fair condition.

Mrs. Field said her husband had been ill for about six weeks before the operation was performed.

Field inherited one of the world's greatest fortunes—in the neighborhood of 160 million dollars—from his merchant prince grandfather, founder of the Chicago department store bearing his name.

Since his grandfather died in 1906, the estate was not subject to federal inheritance taxes.

As a young man, Field was interested in polo, airplanes, fox hunting, horse racing and the like, and his social set included the Duke of Windsor.

As he grew his "playboy" phase, he became deeply interested in philanthropy and social service, particularly for the welfare of children.

He expanded his enterprises and founded the Chicago Sun in 1941 as a supporter of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The newspaper challenged the strongly entrenched anti-Roosevelt Chicago Tribune, then the only morning newspaper in Chicago.

In 1942 he became sole owner of the New York tabloid PM, which he had helped to found as a stockholder in 1940.

PM, which had a strong left-of-center complexion, pioneered many innovations but was never a financial success. He sold the paper in 1946.

Israel Reports New Arab Raids On Jordan Front

Chief UN Truce Observer Lands In Cairo to Make Preparations For Commanding Police Force

LONDON (AP)—Israel reported new attacks by Arab raiders from Jordan along a 30-mile section of frontier today even as United Nations official sought to put the precarious cease-fire in Egypt on a firm footing.

Sniper fire crackled at Port Said in the Suez Canal zone yesterday against French and British troops, and one skirmish was fought between an Egyptian patrol and British tankmen.

The United States, fearful of intervention by Soviet "volunteers" was reported urging all possible speed in getting a U. N. police force into the area to back up the cease-fire and supervise withdrawal of French-British forces.

Canada's Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, who has been the U. N.'s chief truce observer in Palestine, arrived in Cairo today to make preparations for taking over command of the U. N. police force.

Soviet Russia, which abstained along with all the rest of the Soviet bloc, from the U. N. Assembly vote to go ahead with the emergency police force, has offered to help throw the British, French and Israelis out of Egypt.

There was no fresh indication today as to what Soviet and Red Chinese forces might do. But fears of Russian intervention were heightened by reports that the Egyptians now were feverishly repairing their bomb-battered airfields. Defense Minister Antony Head informed the House of Commons that Britain was aware of this development. He said:

"Our reports are that very active work is now taking place at considerable speed to repair the airfields."

The British and French claimed the almost complete destruction of the Egyptian air force in aerial strikes that proceeded the troop landings in Suez. There would be no point in the Egyptian patching runways unless they expected the arrival of planes friendly to their cause.

There was no immediate reaction by high Israeli officials to the new border raids from Jordan. But similar attacks from Egypt over a long period were given as the official reason for the operation launched 10 days ago by Israeli armored columns and paratroopers which launched almost to the Suez Canal.

The Israeli army said commando squads stabbed across the border at many places from Shaar Hagai, midway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, to the narrow waist of Israel north of Tel Aviv, blowing up a water pipeline and three houses and attacking several cars with gunfire and grenades. No one was injured.

Since the Israeli blow at Egypt, Jordan is reported to have been reinforced by Syrian, Iraqi and Saudi Arabian troops—an action which Premier David Ben-Gurion at one time said would cause Israel to reserve "freedom of action."

Since the fighting with Egypt started, Israel has taken little apparent notice of the troop movements in Jordan, however. Israeli army sources said today they believed the attacks from Jordan were made by Arab commandos who had escaped from the Israeli-occupied Gaza Strip formerly held by Egypt.

Lending uneasiness to the cease-fire in the main theater in the Suez Canal zone, Sheikh Hassan Maamoun, grand mufti of Egypt, today exhorted Moslems the world over to fight Britain, France and Israel as a "sacred duty." He did not specifically proclaim a holy war.

But the British appeared to think full-scale military operations would not be resumed. The Air Ministry disclosed that some British warplanes—including the Valiant four-jet bombers—had been called home from the Middle East. It was a Valiant which was used to drop an atom bomb in a test in Australia last month.

UN Continues Police Plans For Mid East

Assembly Approves Emergency Force; Asks Withdrawal

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations pushed ahead today with its plans for formation of a Middle East police force despite Israeli defiance and British-French refusal to withdraw from the Suez Canal Zone until the U. N. troops are on the spot.

The General Assembly, after an all-day debate, last night approved Secretary Dag Hammarskjöld's plan for the emergency force to police the cease-fire in Egypt and supervise withdrawal of foreign troops.

The Assembly resolution asked the new U. N. command headed by Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns "to proceed forthwith with the full organization" of the force.

The Assembly also adopted a resolution calling on Britain and France "immediately to withdraw their forces from Egyptian territory" and on Israel to pull out of Egypt's Sinai Peninsula and Gaza Strip, the territory she occupied in her sweep into Egypt.

Israel's refusal to cooperate with the U. N. force was announced to the Parliament in Jerusalem by Premier David Ben-Gurion. He said Israel would not agree to the stationing of a foreign force "in her territory or in any of the area occupied by her."

Hammarskjöld told the Assembly that if the Israeli troops did not withdraw to the Palestine armistice line after the U. N. force arrived, he would go to the General Assembly or the Security Council "for such measures as those two main organs of the United Nations might decide upon."

Coldest Weather Of the Season Hits Most of Missouri

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The coldest weather of the season hit Missouri today with sub-freezing temperatures and snow flurries.

The leading edge of an extensive cold air mass, which sent the mercury to the zero mark in Wyoming, hit the state during the night. Blustery winds brought light snow flurries to widely scattered points, Kansas City, Kirksville, Farmington and Rolla.

A frost or freeze warning was issued by the Weather Bureau.

It will be colder this afternoon and tonight with freezing temperatures tonight. The lows by morning are expected to range from the 20s in the north and west to the lower 30s in the extreme southeast.

Friday's highs probably will range from 45 to 55. Kirksville recorded a low of 29 this morning. St. Joseph and Springfield had 31. Other readings included: Butler, Kansas City and Grandview 32; Columbia, Rolla and Joplin 33; St. Louis 34, West Plains 37 and Malden 42.

Adlai Finally Gets Privacy After Defeat

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP) — For months, Adlai E. Stevenson could hardly utter a word without finding someone at his elbow, ready to write it down and report it.

For months, there was the prospect that he might become president — and the statements were regarded as important news.

No legions of newsmen and photographers, no tangle of television camera cables awaited him as he returned late yesterday to his farm home near this Chicago suburb.

When the two-time loser in races for the presidency left his downtown Chicago hotel headquarters for the 40-mile trip, one newsmen, two photographers and a newsreel cameraman followed him.

At his farm home later only one newsmen kept vigil.

Lights were aglow as Stevenson entertained a few friends, without interruption.

Stevenson came out of the house. In his movements, in the vigor of his voice, it seemed that he had forgotten Tuesday's defeat.

He and his friends drove away from the farm, the Democratic leader at the wheel of his car. The others piled into a limousine and two cars.

He drove fast through the countryside, to the nearby home of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Dick of Lake Forest for a small dinner party.

The defeated candidate plans to remain at his farm home to catch up on an accumulation of correspondence and make plans to return to his Chicago law practice.

His future political activities, as titular head of the Democratic party, will be disclosed in a statement he will make before the end of the week.

His news secretary Clayton Fritchey indicated to newsmen Stevenson might make a series of speeches to help pay off a Democratic party campaign deficit which likely will reach more than a million dollars. After his defeat in 1952 and with the party more than $800,000 in the red, Stevenson made several speeches at party fund-raising dinners.

Reports 22 Deaths In Cholera Epidemic

NEW DELHI (AP) — A cholera epidemic at Bhagalpur, on the Ganges in eastern India, has killed 22 people in the last five days and put 100 in hospital, press reports said today.

Crowd Surges Toward Russian UN Offices; Shout at Red Guests

NEW YORK (AP) — A menacing crowd of 3,000 surged toward the headquarters of the Russian United Nations delegation on Park Avenue last night as the Red elite within downed champagne and vodka toasts to the 39th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

A force of about 150 police — some of them mounted — barred the shouting pickets from the entrance.

Many in the crowd were of Hungarian descent. Numerous students of several colleges joined the demonstration.

As guests passed in and out of the Red delegation's headquarters pickets held placards high. Some of them read:

"Don't drink champagne mixed with Hungarian blood."

"Get out of America, you murderers."

"Sobolev stop lying." (The first three letters of the last name of chief U.N. Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev were capitalized.)

Sobolev was host at the affair inside.

Police finally gave the "move on" order, and within 10 minutes the crowd vanished.

North Korea Admits Shooting Fighter; Claims Violation

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea tonight admitted shooting down a South plane. Radio Pyongyang said the South Korean craft violated North Korea's territory.

South Korea announced yesterday two of its F51s had been attacked and said one plane was missing. The second returned with 20 bullet holes, South Korea said.

The South Koreans claimed two North Korean MIG15 fighters attacked the two Mustangs over the Yellow Sea, which separates Korea from the Chinese mainland. The North Korean broadcast said the two South Korean planes launched the attack and the North Korean planes fought back, shooting down one.

It was the first encounter between South and North Korean planes since the Korean armistice.

New Jersey Governor To Wed 28-Year-Old Helen Day Stevenson

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP) — The parents of Helen Day Stevenson, daughter of a college president, today announced her engagement to Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

The names of the 28-year-old brunette and the handsome 48-year-old Democratic governor have been linked romantically for months.

Her father William E. Stevenson, president of Oberlin College, said they plan to wed in January.

During the election campaign, Miss Stevenson worked for the Volunteers for Stevenson-Kefauver campaign. She shares a distant relative with the unsuccessful presidential candidate through her mother's side of her family.

Her father explained that like this: "My wife's aunt married Spencer Ewing, who was a double first cousin of Adlai Stevenson's father."

A graduate of Colorado College, Miss Stevenson served with the Red Cross in Korea, later returning to this country, where she was employed at the United Nations building and as a public relations.

Window Firm Fined

KANSAS CITY (AP) — County Circuit Court Judge Ben Terte fined the Ace Window Co. of Missouri $150 yesterday after it pleaded guilty to charges of fraudulent advertising on radio and television.

An attorney for the defendants told the court the company had filed an involuntary bankruptcy petition.

Oregon to Have Five Demo Congressmen And State Governor

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Oregon will have a Democratic governor next year and will be represented in Congress by five Democrats and only one Republican.

The new governor will be Robert Holmes, a state senator and Astoria radio station manager, who was swept into office as voters re-elected Sen. Wayne Morse as a Democrat and gave a rousing majority to President Eisenhower.

Holmes, 47, the first Democrat elected Oregon governor since 1934 served four sessions in the State Senate, where his special interest was in the field of education.

Rep. Walter Norblad is the only Republican to survive the Democratic congressional landslide.

Rep. Edith Green, Democrat from Portland, won easily.

But Republican Rep. Sam Coon was defeated by Al Ullman, baker real estate man and an active supporter of a federal Hells Canyon Dam, and Republican Rep. Harris Ellsworth was defeated after eight successive terms, by Charles Porter, Eugene attorney.

Mild Weather Ends In North Central States With Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was cold today in broad areas of the western two thirds of the country, ending a long spell of mild weather in many places.

First snow of the season fell in sections of the north central states but amounts were generally light. The snow belt spread from the northern Mississippi Valley into the Great Lakes region.

Heaviest area of precipitation during the night and early morning was in the southern Appalachians and southwestward to the Gulf. Rain measured nearly half an inch in some places. Scattered rain was reported in Texas, Oklahoma and along the eastern edges of the Rockies in Colorado.

Generally fair weather prevailed in most other sections of the country.

Temperatures dipped to near zero in parts of Wyoming, with Laramie reporting 5 above.

Woman Selects Other Book for Minister

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Col. Barney Oldfield of the Air Defense Command was autographing copies of his book, "Never a Shot in Anger," in a bookshop.

A woman asked him if it would be a suitable present for her minister.

"Well, it's sort of a naughty book in spots," Oldfield said.

"All right, recommend something else for my preacher," the woman said. "I'll take this myself."

CHIROPRACTIC RESEARCH

By Dr. J. J. Rodewald

A careful compilation and examination of 99,976 actual cases of sickness handled by chiropractors indicated three obvious conclusions as to the value of spinal therapy in regaining health.

First: that there is a definite relationship between faulty posture in the back and normal distribution of spinal nerve force.

Second: that correction of faulty back posture does something which causes a beneficial change in a diseased condition.

Third: that the diseases and conditions showing decided improvement or complete elimination were not confined to any limited category.

This survey by the Chiropractic Research Bureau establishes beyond contradiction that the segments of the spinal column are out of normal alignment in more than 89% of the cases where disease is discovered in the functions or organs of the body. Correction of faulty position of the segments showed evidence of arrested progress in the disease.

It is not true to say everything has been done that can be done, unless chiropractic has been included. Phone 392, for an appointment today.

New Heads Lead Foreign Affairs Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Democratic-controlled Congress convening Jan. 3 will have new chairmen of both Senate and House committees dealing with international affairs.

Otherwise President Eisenhower will be working with most of the same committee heads. Some have largely supported his efforts; others have opposed them.

Most committee chairmen in the next session again will come from the South. Southerners are in line for 8 of the 15 Senate chairmanships and 12 of the 19 House posts.

Veteran Walter George (D-Ga.), dean of the Senate, is leaving that body after 34 years and thus relinquishing his job as head of the Foreign Relations Committee. It will go to 89-year-old Theodore Francis Green (D-R.I.), oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

In the House, Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC) of the Foreign Affairs Committee also is retiring. Rep. Thomas Gordon (D-Ill.) is in line to succeed him.

The administration received strong support from these Democratic-led committees in the last two years on most foreign affairs questions, and can look for this generally to continue.

Also, such chairmen as Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) of the Finance Committee are expected to continue their backing of the President on most issues.

Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.), chairman of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, can be expected to fight hard for a school construction bill along the lines the administration wants, provided no antisegregation provision is attached to it.

On the other hand, administration civil rights legislation is certain to get a frigid reception from Sen. James Eastland (D-Miss.), chairman of the Judiciary Committee, just as it did in the 1956 session.

But in the House, Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) of the Judiciary group has expressed a desire to go considerably further than the civil rights program presented this year by Eisenhower.

In addition to the committees handling foreign affairs, these two committees will have new chairmen:

House Commerce — Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark.) will succeed the late Percy Priest (D-Tenn.).

Senate Rules — Sen. Thomas C.

Russia Citizens Think Hungarian Campaign Is Heroic Effort

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russian man in the street is convinced the Soviet military action in Hungary was a heroic campaign to eradicate a threatened return of Hitlerite Fascism.

The Russian papers haven't told him anything else.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda today devoted nearly three columns to the U. N. General Assembly's cease-fire demand in the Suez Canal crisis. But it allocated only a single line of its six-page edition to mention of U. N. discussion of Soviet aggression in Hungary.

The paper published a report from Prague giving "eyewitness" accounts of "crimes committed by antirevolutionary forces in Hungary."

Liberty PTA Holds Hallowe'en Party

The Liberty PTA held its regular meeting and a Hallowe'en party Friday night with Mrs. Wiemer presiding.

Before the meeting, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Eldon DeMott, Carl Newman, Wilbur Stean, Danny Stean and Jacky Heuerman. A motion was made to have the Yearly Thanksgiving supper at the school the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving.

It was also voted to change the refreshment committee each month.

After the meeting, games were played and prizes awarded. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Felton and Mrs. Stean.

Hold Pie Supper

A pie and box supper was held at Longwood School Nov. 2 with $130.30 made. Mrs. Kent, teacher, and the pupils presented a program. Refreshments and merchandise were sold.

Hennings (D-Mo) probably will succeed Green.

Police Batter Down Door to Find Checker Game in Progress

BALTIMORE (AP)—The cops rang and rang that doorbell of the apartment on Myrtle Avenue in the early morning hours. No answer.

So they battered down a third door and burst into the basement. They found 14 persons kibitzing two checker games — apparently so engrossed they hadn't heard all cupant of the apartment, of a that battering.

On looking a little further, officers also found 10 sets of dice — still warm to the touch — behind a table. And some money here and there.

Judge Joseph L. Carter convicted Clarence Scott, 49-year-old oc-

Film Players Bring Scare of Invasion In Ceylon Village

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Peasants fled from their mud-thatched homes today as paratroops descended on a village 12 miles from Colombo today. They set the temple bells pealing with cries of "The invasion of Ceylon has begun."

Police hurried to the village to explain that the "invaders" were playing parts in the British Film "Bridge Over River Kawi."

Deputy Sheriff Shoots Gorilla With One Shot

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A sharpshooting deputy sheriff took just one pistol shot to kill a 230-pound gorilla which had mauled his handler.

Deputy Lloyd Simmons shot King Kong in the head after the animal bit and clawed the handler, Alva B. Dexter, 49. Dexter is in a hospital with severe wounds on the face and arms.

The gorilla had escaped from his cage at the Leo Carroll animal show in a manner not yet known. He attacked Dexter as the handler brought his evening meal.

King Kong was valued at $2,500.

Liberace Returns From Overseas Tour

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Liberace has returned from a five-week overseas tour a bit disappointed that the Middle East crisis prevented him from appearing before the Queen of England.

British forces invaded Egypt just two hours before his scheduled command performance before Elizabeth II said the pianist.

"I wept openly," Liberace said,

Blames Election For Fire That Took His $100,000 Home

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—William Beudikofer is blaming the $100,000 fire which destroyed his grand view house in the Mt. Hamilton Range on the election.

Beudikofer told sheriff's deputies he believed angered seekers for a drink started the fire.

Required to close his tavern during polling hours, Beudikofer decided against reopening Tuesday night. He said he heard a car drive up just before the fire was discovered at 2 a.m.

In referring to the cancellation, "My brother George wept . . . it was a sad moment."

Time Savers
Short cuts in preparing vegetables are well worth thinking about. Not only do more efficient methods save time but also their use saves nutritive value as well.

When you wash spinach or other greens, put them in a big pan or sinkful of water. Pat them gently to loosen grit and soil without bruising the leaves then lift them out instead of draining off water. That way you lift them from the soil that has settled to the bottom.

Peel onions under running water to save your tears.

Many homemakers today use vegetables without paring which in times past were usually pared. Among these are potatoes, which offer the most food value if cooked in their jackets. Also young carrots and tomatoes for salad may be used without peeling.

If you must pare vegetables, one of the best pieces of small equipment is the inexpensive swivel-type peeler. It works fast, pares thin and saves waste. A few extra gadgets added to your present supply may be the time and food saver you need.

Reports Men Safe After Altitude Trip

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Office of Naval Research said shortly after noon that two Navy men who rode to a new altitude record of 76,000 feet before running into trouble in their gondola attached to a big balloon were reported safe after landing near Kennedy, Neb.

The ONR office at the University of Minnesota said the two were seen walking around the Gondola and were later picked up by a Navy helicopter, near the northwestern Nebraska community.

The two men had earlier reported the balloon "out of control."

The last radio message from the balloonists was that "We will be out of communication for some time. We are beginning to... the message broke off there."

As the big gas balloon was dropping rapidly, one of the officers reported by radio "we are not going to bail out unless the cargo chute fails." The cargo chute is a big emergency parachute which could lower the gondola in which the men were riding in case the balloon deflated.

The exact nature of the trouble was not known, but the two Navy men said it was "an emergency situation."

"We are cool, calm and collected. We think we will stay with the balloon as long as we can," one of the balloonists reported from an altitude of 39,500 feet.

Cmdrs. Malcolm D. Ross, 37, and Morton L. Lewis, 43, both of Washington, D. C., reached the record altitude for man-carrying balloon flights at 10:38 a. m. CST. Ross and Lewis began to descend at the rate of 1,000 feet a minute after reaching peak altitude in what Lewis described by radio as a "sky of dark blue black color."

At 56,400 feet, Lewis reported the two were enjoying a cup of coffee and added, "We invite you in."

The balloon took off from a "stratobowl" in the Black Hills near here at 7:19 a. m. CST.

At 9:10 a. m., the balloon was at 52,000 feet. Ross reported by radio the temperature inside the gondola was 32 degrees and "we are quite comfortable."

The balloon and gondola shot into the sky at almost 600 feet a minute when mooring ropes were cut. As it rose above the bowl, the big plastic bag reflected a red glow from the morning sky. There was practically no wind at takeoff time.

There was no paper money he could take. Most of the money was stolen from Calvert's, amounting to between $15 and $20.

Dewey Short Concedes To Democrat Opponent

GALENA, Mo. (AP)—Rep. Dewey Short today conceded his defeat by Charlie Brown, his Democratic opponent for the Seventh District congressional seat.

Unofficial returns showed Brown leading, 87,304 to 84,673. In his message to Brown, Springfield radio and television performer and executive, Short said:

"You will find your job a tough one, with many headaches and some heartbreaks, but I am sure you will meet the challenge and do your best."

"No man can win all the time," Short said, "and certainly I have no bitterness in my heart or rancor in my soul—only gratitude for the faith and confidence of my friends in me and their loyal support over many years."

That is where the Texas and New York circumstances come in.

New York's Republican Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits has won a Senate seat, but he might not be on hand the first day, which would cut down the GOP tally.

Javits has said he plans to stay on in the state job until Jan. 9, when the GOP - controlled Legislature convenes and could name a Republican successor.

Texas Democratic Senator Price Daniel has been elected governor of his state but he is a senator until he resigns. He has resigned effective Jan. 15 or at such earlier time as a successor senator is qualified.

Daniel has asked for an early special election but none has been called so far. There are half a dozen Democratic hopefuls and in that situation the Republicans hope to win the seat through a split Democratic vote. Or there could be an appointment, which presumably would go Democratic.

Except for seven scattered House seats, results of the election on the national level are about wrapped up, with Eisenhower more than nine million votes ahead of Adlai Stevenson.

However, there is no concrete evidence to substantiate Eisenhower's contention that "modern republicanism" achieved a victory.

On the contrary, it appeared that the personal popularity which gave him 41 states and 457 electoral votes did not sift down to the general run of GOP candidates.

"Of course, many of those as yet unreported to the campaign headquarters are in the process of being concluded," he said.

"What we are really having to fight now is the deadline for solicitation which cannot be extended. Advance gifts must close Friday, the women's division Monday and the men's group by Tuesday. On behalf of all the people who have given so liberally of their time and energies to work in our campaign I sincerely urge you to help by being ready to make your contribution or commitment as soon as you are contacted. Also, I want to express the gratitude of every worker in our campaign to those who have already done so much to assure our success."

GOP Gains In Number Of Senators

WASHINGTON (AP)—A second Senate seat from Kentucky fell into the Republican camp on late election returns today and brought the party alignment to Democrats 49, Republicans 47.

Of these numbers, the Democrats stand to take organizational control which means getting the committee chairmanships, the patronage and special advantages the majority party enjoys. But there are a couple of "iffy" circumstances that just might leave the Republicans a chance to take over the Senate machinery.

Involved are the independent attitude of a new Democratic senator from Ohio, and the special home state situations of a hold-over Texas Democrat and a new New York Republican.

The GOP hopes were kept alive when late Kentucky returns indicated Republican Thurston B. Morton had upset Sen. Earle Clements the assistant Democratic floor leader.

Now Senate control could hang on the attitude of Ohio's Gov. Frank J. Lausche. Running as a Democrat, he ousted Republican Sen. George H. Bender.

But Lausche has said that under certain circumstances he might vote with the Republicans on organization of the Senate. The suggestion was that he would go with the GOP if President Eisenhower were re-elected—something that has happened by a landslide—and if the Senate division were close—which it is.

But there was no specific discussion with Lausche of one factor affecting the situation as it has actually developed. That is solid Democratic control of the House, which would detract from the effectiveness of Republican command in the Senate. Lausche's comments about a possible shift were in relation to difficulties he said he had encountered as a Democratic governor with a Republican Legislature.

A Lausche flip-flop on the organization issue could create a 48-48 tie which Vice President Nixon could break in the Republicans' favor.

But today Lausche put out a hint he might avoid the whole issue by letting the Democrats organize the Senate without his voting at all. He said he would finish out his term as governor, which ends Jan. 14, after the Senate has been in business some days. He said he will take a stand on the organization issue when it comes up — "if the Senate is not organized by the time I am sworn in."

If all the other senators were present that would let the Democrats take over by a vote of 48 to 46 or 47.

That is where the Texas and New York circumstances come in.

New York's Republican Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits has won a Senate seat, but he might not be on hand the first day, which would cut down the GOP tally.

Ike's Problem Is Unfriendly Legislature

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was confronted today with the prospect of an increasingly unfriendly Congress in the aftermath of his sweeping re-election victory.

Although he defeated Adlai E. Stevenson by more than nine million votes, his party took a political defeat when Democrats won margins in both houses of Congress.

Neither was there concrete evidence to substantiate Eisenhower's contention that "modern Republicanism" had achieved a victory. On the contrary, it appeared that the personal popularity which gave him 41 states and 457 electoral votes did not sift down to the general run of GOP candidates.

Increased antagonism by the new Congress above that displayed by the Democratic 84th to some of Eisenhower's proposals seemed likely to make itself felt primarily on domestic issues.

The narrowness of party margins in both Senate and House made it certain that on most issues final decisions, as in the past four years, would be made by two-party coalitions rather than on strict party lines.

Eisenhower's own victory surpassed his 1952 triumph over Stevenson in both popular and electoral votes.

With some 10,000 precincts not yet tallied, the popular vote was 33,665,121 for Eisenhower to 24,651,172 for Stevenson.

A still undecided Kentucky senatorial race seemed likely to decide the firmness of Democratic control over that body.

In the House, the Democrats had elected 229 members, 11 more than the necessary majority, to the Republicans' 200. Democrats were leading in all six undecided races.

The present division is 232-203. Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas has attributed Eisenhower's ballot appeal in part to what he said was the fact that "in a moment of peril, the American people voted to back up their President and demonstrate to the world that America is united."

Salesman Is Victim Of His Own Auto

OMAHA (AP)—William Gundy, 47, a house to house salesman, was crossing a street when he looked up and saw a car bearing down on him.

He couldn't jump clear and the car knocked him down, went on a 100 feet and hit a power pole.

Said Gundy to police: "I lay there wondering who that fool driver was. Then it dawned on me, it was my car!"

Gundy, who was badly bruised, had parked his car on a hill. The brakes slipped.

Russia Votes for Ike

RUSSIA, Ohio (AP)—Russia liked Ike — Russia, Ohio, that is.

This tiny town in Shelby County gave President Eisenhower 246 votes to 156 for Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson in Tuesday's election. Russia normally is Democratic.

While Democrats generally shared Johnson's avowed willingness to cooperate on international matters, they left little doubt they will question closely many Eisenhower domestic proposals.

For the President, the cold, hard indications of a second-day look at the balloting results pointed in these varying directions:

Congressional Democrats, assured they could survive a presidential landslide, exhibited new confidence they can draft their own legislative program and pit it successfully against Eisenhower's.

These Democrats seemed to have discarded any belief that open opposition to the President might amount to political suicide in future voting.

By constitutional amendment, Eisenhower cannot run again even if he wanted to. That political fact seems likely to have an effect in GOP ranks too. Some Republicans owe their elections to a firm clutch on Eisenhower's coattails. But many others, including most of the holdovers in the Senate, did not.

The GOP lawmakers like the Democrats, knew that for practical purposes Eisenhower's influence at the polls ended last Tuesday. They already were speculating on the identity of the man who will head their ticket in 1960.

The choice being so wide, the GOP House and Senate members appeared likely to do at the moment of legislative decision what each thought was best for his own individual political future. They might not follow Eisenhower's lead.

Moslem Leader Urges Egyptians to Fight As a 'Sacred Duty' moslem, grand mufti of Egypt, today exhorted Moslem men and women in Egypt and other Moslem countries to fight the British, French and Israelis as a "sacred duty."

The Moslem leader did not call specifically for a jihad, a religious war.

Citing verses from the Koran, the mufti in a statement broadcast by Cairo radio urged Moslems "to fight imperialism and its agents who are traitors and weaklings, uphold Egypt's banner and champion the cause of your religion."

In making a white sauce, first melt butter or margarine, then stir in flour. If the liquid is to be added cold, it may be stirred in at one time; if it is hot, stir it in gradually.

Red Radio Says Vote Is Personal Victory for Ike

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio said today the American election results were a personal victory for President Eisenhower but a resounding rejection of the policies of his Republican party.

A broadcast in the radio's home service said:

"It is still too early to draw any exhaustive conclusions from the results of the U.S. elections, but already many American political observers stress that the victory is due primarily to Eisenhower's personal popularity, connected with the part he played during World War II as well as with such measures, as for example, his participation in the Geneva conference of the heads of government of the four great powers. The home and foreign policy pursued by the Republican administration in recent years, does not meet with the approval of the majority of the American people.

Survey Shows Teen-Agers Think Most Parents Are Old Fashioned

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Youth Research Co.

While Mom and Dad struggle bravely to pass as up-to-date parents, they are being flunked, wholesale, by their children.

This probably will jar parents in an age of scientific child-rearing and manuals on adolescent psychology. But the fact remains that to a large group of young people today, parents seem as old-fashioned as their own parents probably seemed to them.

One of our nationwide surveys of teen-agers' opinion on parental manners, morals and habits shows that 49.1 per cent of the girls and 40.6 per cent of the boys regard Mother as slightly antiquated—particularly in her views on courtship and sex. Similarly, 44.3 per cent of the daughters and 35.9 per cent of sons consider Dad a captive of the past.

While more than two thirds of the youngsters questioned gave their parents a clean bill on behavior, the minority took potshots. They chided mothers for chattering too much, being sloppy homemakers, and dressing unfashionably. Fathers were rapped for poor grooming, faulty table manners, and—occasionally—for drinking more than they should.

One interesting sidelight of the survey was that girls tend to be more critical of their parents than boys—and yet are more willing to cast their lives in the same mold as their parents'.

In the big group of youngsters who don't think their mothers quite modern enough, one 16-year-old girl complained, "She always says I'm too young to know this, too young to know that. When will I be old enough—when I'm a grandmother?"

A 17-year-old boy groused: "Mother tells me every time I go out on a date, 'Be sure and conduct yourself properly. None of that necking business, that's not for refined young gentlemen.' Does she think we live in the age of Queen Victoria?"

Many girls objected because their mothers frowned on good-night kisses. "I've often tried to explain to my mother that spending five minutes outside our front door with my date won't ruin my reputation for ever and ever, but she is sure that it puts me in a 'compromising' position," a teen-age daughter lamented.

Girls who put their fathers in the old-fashioned category cited Dad's lukewarmness towards their boy friends as evidence.

"None of my boy friends can satisfy my father," an Oregon girl said. "He thinks boys should click their heels and kiss my hand when they enter the house. Maybe in his day, but certainly not in ours."

Other counts in the arraignment: Father's "hush-hush" attitude on sex; disapproval of smoking; reluctance to let daughter drive the car, and plain old-fashioned spanking.

"That 'spare the rod, spoil the child' technique went out with the horse and buggy, but not with my dad," one youngster grumbled. Others found Father down right medieval in his insistence on studying.

Gripes over "old-fashioned" notions apart, however, 74 per cent of sons and 70 per cent of daughters reported they had no fault at all to find with their fathers, while 76.1 per cent of boys and 61.7 per cent of girls felt that way about their mothers.

Others, however, answered affirmatively when asked whether there was anything they disliked about their parents in addition to old-fashioned attitudes.

A Brooklyn lad said his mother "always acts like my friends are in the way. It gets so they don't want to come to my house anymore."

Embarrassment at mothers who don't dress summarized by this 17-year-old youngster's reply: "I don't expect mother to look like a fashion model, but I wish she would dress a little more in the 20th and less in the 18th century. She wears old lady clothes and she's not even 40."

Other criticisms: Mother doesn't show enough understanding, is short-tempered, is bossy and nags, can't be reasoned with and—a glaring mistake in teen-agers' eyes—"gets personal in public."

Fathers were taken to task for, among other things, bad temper, being inconsiderate to their wives, dubious etiquette, stinginess, and poor taste in clothes.

While girls predominated in the complaint department, 37.3 per cent of them would be content with lives similar to their mothers'. Only 10.8 per cent of the boys care to pattern their lives after Pop's.

Some typical comments from

Teens ask: "Why don't parents admit we're responsible?"

the girls who want a better life than her mothers'. "I wouldn't want to be such a slave." "More children, and more money." "More culture, and not so many surface worries."

From the boys who deem their fathers' way of life inadequate: "I don't want such a meager, struggling existence." "He's neurotic." "I'd be less strict with my children, and give them more." "More education, and more adventure."

Pettis County 4-H Council Installs Its New Officers

The Pettis County 4-H Council installed its new officers Tuesday night in the circuit court room of the courthouse. George Buchholz, Van Natta 4-H Club, retiring Council President, presided. The pledge to the American and 4-H flags was led by Joe Welliver, Flat Creek 4-H Club. Roll call was answered by 1956 and 1957 council representatives from the 22 clubs. Owen Fox, associate agent in charge of 4-H club work, was introduced by the president.

The 1957 goals were presented by Joe Welliver, chairman of the goals committee. The council voted to accept the following goals for the coming year:

1. Eighty per cent attendance at the County Council meetings.
  2. Organize two new 4-H clubs.
  3. Ninety-two per cent completion of 1957 projects.
  4. Seventy per cent of leaders attend leader training meetings.
  5. Sixty per cent of the 4-H members have health check up sometime during the year by a doctor of the members' own choice.
  6. At least one boy and one girl from each 4-H club fill out a Standard Report Form.
- Merle Vaughan reported on the program ahead on the control of brucellosis. He also announced the date for 4-H recognition night has been changed from Nov. 17 to Dec. 1.
- The "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest was announced by Miss O'Brian.
- The possibility of Pettis County 4-H clubs entering the Share the Fun contest was discussed by Fox. Council members will discuss this with their clubs and report their decision at the next council meeting.

Miss O'Brian and George Buchholz installed the following council officers in a candle lighting ceremony:

President, Glenda Rhodes, Quisenberry 4-H Club; vice-president, Bill Ball, Flat Creek 4-H Club; secretary, Linda Turner, Maplewood 4-H Club; treasurer, Virgil Meredith, Georgetown 4-H Club; reporter, Judy Brown, South Abell 4-H Club; game leader, Mary Lee Kahrs, Smithton 4-H Club; song leader, Patty Jo Rodewald, Striped College 4-H Club; musician, Delta Reine, Tanglebrook 4-H Club; and parliamentarian, Mary Kay Hayes, Prairie Ridge 4-H Club.

Fold diced peeled fresh peaches into fritter batter; drop spoonfuls of the mixture into deep fat and fry until brown. Drain on absorbent paper and serve with a lemon sauce for a wonderful dessert.

Tigers Drop Final Home Tilt, 27-19

S-C Absorbs Sixth Season Loss. To Mexico Here Wednesday Nite

Smith-Cotton gave a game away to Mexico Wednesday night in the Tigers' final home stand of the season, 27-19. By all rights the game should have ended in a 19-19 tie. The team wasn't the same as it was when it played Raytown, but played nearly as loose as it did against Columbia.

Now with the final Central Missouri Conference game coming up Friday, Nov. 16, at Boonville, they may have a chance of picking up the Missouri Military school and end the season with one more victory to give them a season record of four wins and six losses.

The Tigers appeared to be riding a steam roller in the opening quarter, taking advantage of every break and tallying 13 points. But the machine bogged down and that was it. The visitors failed to tally in the opening stanza but knotted the score in the second, 13-13. They scored in both the third and fourth quarter to get a comfortable lead.

In the first quarter the Tigers set up their first scoring play when Carl Peak's punt was blocked and Jim Goodrich picked it up on the 30 and went to the four-yard line. Goodrich carried it over for the tally and Gates kicked the extra point. The second touchdown play came when Mexico punted to the Tiger 31 and Murray carried it back to the 41-yard line. An 11-yard gain for a first down came, then after Garrison had picked up four and three yards and Goodrich one, Garrison tossed a pass to Charles Newman who went 42 yards for the touchdown. Gates' kick was wide.

Then in the second quarter the tables were turned. On a Mexico punt Murray took it on the 30, fumbled the ball and it was recovered on the Tiger 26. A 26-yard drive ended in scoring and Terry Hall went through the line for the extra point. The Tigers took over and lost it on a fourth down incomplete pass on the Bulldogs' 33. A 33-yard land drive by Mexico moved it to the Tiger 34 where Jerry Roundall passed to Peak for the distance and a touchdown. A try for the point failed as the Tiger line held.

Smith-Cotton kicked off at the opening of the half and Mexico took charge on its own 39. A drive which included a 23-yard run by Terry Hall and a 13-yard pass, ended in Roundall carrying it for two yards and another touchdown. George Mayes ran the ball for the extra point.

Sedalia took the kickoff on the 46 and moved in with a drive which saw Newman go 37 yards on line plays which took it to the one yard line. There Garrison fumbled and Mexico took over.

After Mexico failed to pick up a first down a punt was again blocked and the Tigers recovered on the 11-yard line. The next play saw James Murray make an 11-yard pass to Larry Shepherd for the touchdown. Gates missed the kick again.

In the fourth quarter, after the ball had been switched back-and-forth, the Bulldogs had it on the Tigers' one-foot line where Peak fumbled after picking up 19 yards. The Tigers fought back and got it to the Mexico four-yard stripe where it was fumbled by Goodrich on the second play and recovered by Mexico on the five-yard stripe. Hall picked up two yards, then Roundall hit the center of the line for three yards and the score. Hall went through the line for the extra point.

The fans began leaving the stands but stopped in their tracks when it looked like the Tigers might be on the march with one minute and 15 seconds to go. Taking the kickoff on the Tigers' own 32, Murray heaved a long pass to Bill Kelley for 42 yards and put the ball on the Mexico 14. Murray couldn't connect in his next four pass tries. Mexico took over with 31 seconds to go and made two plays which netted but a yard as the clock ran out of time.

AUTOMOTIVE PIONEER, Walter S. Austin, Sr., works out some chess moves. In background is a picture of his Highway King auto, which last was produced in 1918.

Auto Pioneer Says Drivers Not As Improved As Cars

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Cars have come a long way — perhaps too far — says Walter S. Austin Sr., since he stopped producing his Highway King auto in 1918.

The trouble is, says the 89-year-old automotive pioneer, drivers haven't improved as much as the cars.

"I just don't approve of cross-country driving any more — too many people killed," says Austin. "Motoring nowadays doesn't appeal to me."

Austin and his father, the late James E. Austin, once produced about 50 cars a year from 1901 to 1918 in their Grand Rapids plant. The late William Randolph Hearst owned two Highway Kings. Mrs. Emma Calve, the opera singer, stopped off on a tour in 1915 and took one back to her native France.

Thanks

I want to take this means of expressing to you the deep appreciation I feel for the confidence you placed in me by your support at the polls in Tuesday's election.

I will do my best to be worthy of your trust. I will welcome your continued help in performing my duties.

Sincerely
Clarence M. Purchase

Hunts Fame Without Aid Of Her Beauty

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gia Scala, a pretty girl from Italy, aims to find film fame without the elements that have helped her countrywomen.
"I'd rather act from the neck up," she smiles.
Gia, a brown-haired beauty from Fome, is plenty okay from the neck down or up.
"I feel very sorry for those who try to get by on beauty alone," she remarked. "Because when the beauty is gone, what will they have left to build a career upon?"
Gia has managed to find success here without a barrage of leg or bosom art. She now has a starring role in "Garment Center," and Columbia thought highly enough of her to buy half of her contract from Universal-International.

"The Country Girl"

Her first big break came at U-I in "Four Girls in Town," the story of four foreign beauties brought to Hollywood on a talent search. The story was taken from life — Gia's life.
Her whole story could make a fascinating movie. She was born in England of an Italian father and Spanish-Irish mother. Her father, an importer, took the family to Rome when Gia — short for Giavanna — was three months old.

After the war her father planned to send her to England to school, but didn't have enough money. Gia suggested visiting an aunt in Long Island. To her surprise, she was allowed to go.

She managed to get through high school there, though she spoke no English when she arrived. She took dramatic lessons in New York, but had no luck getting jobs. She made ends meet as a professional contestant on TV quiz shows.
An agent saw her in the office of her drama coach, Stella Adler. U-I was staging a world-wide hunt for a girl to play Mary Magdalene and the agent suggested Gia for the role. With girls from France, Belgium and Holland, she was taken to Hollywood.

The picture was never made.

Radio Gives More Coverage To Events

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—The events of the past 10 days will not be forgotten quickly in the course of world affairs. The medium of television has covered them adequately, but without distinction. Radio has done a more thorough job.

Some television executives, questioned as to whether they view their medium as primarily one of entertainment, have replied that its function is both to entertain and to inform. They believe that TV has been fulfilling its function of informing the public during these recent days.

That it was not first pointed out by Jack Gould, the television critic of the New York Times, who hit the major networks hard because they did not give thorough coverage to early sessions of the United Nations Security Council on the Suez crisis.

The view of the networks was expressed by John Daly, vice president in charge of news and public affairs for ABC, who said that the debate, in fairness to both sides, would have had to be carried in its entirety or not at all. He cited the uncertainty of council session scheduling, "the stultifying effect of triple translation, and the involved parliamentary character of the debate itself," as elements which—in effect—made for poor, or at least undramatic, TV programming.

Since last week the TV networks, especially NBC and CBS, have intensified their U.N. coverage. But they have not approached the U.N. coverage accomplished by radio.

The reason for this is obvious. Network television is sponsored; to cut off scheduled sponsored programs means big financial sacrifices. Network radio is sponsored; to switch to the U.N. headquarters is free, heavy-sent programming.

The situation is a classical example of the perpetual struggle between idealism and pragmatism in television programming. The idealists attack and the pragmatists give a little.

Air Force Announces Loss for Two Years

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Air Force has lost 1,125 pilots and 1,600 planes through accidents in the past two years, reports Brig. Gen. Joseph D. Caldar, director of flight safety research.
In an interview here yesterday Gen. Caldar said 61 civilians have been killed in Air Force accidents, 47 of them in accidents involving jet aircraft.

He urged public understanding of the necessity for continued jet flight training and said the Air Force is doing its utmost to reduce air accidents and fatalities.
The Air Force accident rate has been cut from 506 per 100,000 flying hours in 1921 to 15 per 100,000 flying hours today, he said.

Born on Lower East Side—

New York's Senator-elect Possesses Classic Background

NEW YORK (AP)—To a Manhattan politician, being born on the lower East Side is the big city equivalent of being born in a log cabin. It typifies the American tradition of a gallant rise from a modest beginning.

Jacob Koppel Javits, 52, New York's new senator-elect, has just such a politically classic background. He defeated Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner Tuesday by 450,000 votes.

Javits, whom everyone calls "Jack," was educated in New York's public schools. He went to Columbia University night school and New York University Law School. He was admitted to law practice in 1927.

During World War II, he was assistant to the chief of operations of the Chemical Warfare Service in the European and Pacific theaters. He came out a lieutenant colonel.

As a Republican with Liberal party backing, he was elected to the first of four terms in Congress in 1946.

In 1951 he reluctantly ran on the GOP ticket for president of the New York City Council and lost. In 1953 he sought coalition backing for mayor but didn't get it.

In 1954, he was the only Republican to win on a statewide ticket. He defeated Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. for attorney general by 175,000 votes.

Before tackling Wagner — another of New York's famous sons of a famous father — Javits cleared himself of rumors that he dealt with Communists when he first ran for Congress.

Wagner, whose father was a noted New Deal Senator, did not question Javits' loyalty throughout the campaign.

Javits is Jewish. Wagner is a Roman Catholic. Yet it was Wagner who strongly espoused the cause of Israel in the closing days of the campaign. Javits stood with the Eisenhower administration's opposition to the Israeli march into Egypt. For that he was booed several times — which he said he found hard to take.

Javits, short and bald, succeeds Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, a Democrat, who in retiring attempted to hand-pick Wagner as his successor.

They Get Financial Help--

Living It Up Painlessly
Is Goal of More Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Issues frayed by long controversy await the new 85th Congress.

Domestic problems include federal aid for school construction, civil rights, farm and labor policies, and statehood for Hawaii and Alaska.

Democrats, who wrested control from the Republicans two years ago, again elected majorities to both branches of Congress Tuesday.

But the new Congress, like others in recent years, will be dominated by a Southern Democratic-Republican coalition and can be expected to steer a middle-of-the-road course.

President Eisenhower's influence with the lawmakers may be weakened by knowledge that the constitution bars him from running for re-election even if he wanted to. But an offsetting factor, at the outset at least, may be the size of his own election victory.

Eisenhower already has bid for renewed bipartisan support in the tense international situation by calling top congressional leaders to the White House tomorrow for a briefing on events in Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

Democrats, holding majorities in Senate and House, are in a position to name committee chairmen and to fill other leadership posts in the new Congress that will convene Jan. 3.

With six races still undecided, the Democrats had a 229-200 margin over the Republicans in the House.

The Senate was much closer, with the Democrats leading 49-46 in the decided contests and the Republican candidate leading in the one race still open—in Kentucky.

The Republicans conceivably could get the power to organize the Senate.

This is because Sen-elect Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, a Democrat noted for independent ways, indicated last June that if elected, he might vote with the Republicans under certain circumstances in the organization of the Senate. He has not clarified his present stand, but said yesterday he was "American first and Democrat second."

With the division 49-47, his vote could be crucial since Vice President Nixon could break a 48-48 tie vote and turn the Senate reins over to the Republicans.

Once the legislators settle down to work, they are bound to come to grips again with the issue of federal aid for school construction to help the states overcome the present classroom shortage.

At the last session, federal aid legislation bogged down in a welter of controversy over the Supreme Court's school desegregation decision and the method of apportioning funds.

In the election campaign, Democrats and Republicans blamed each other for defeat of the school bill in the House. Both parties promised to push new legislation in the coming congressional session.

Another source of controversy is an administration bill to provide greater protection for voting privileges and other civil rights and to create a civil rights division in the Justice Department and a presidential commission to investigate civil rights complaints.

The bill passed the House in the last session but was locked tightly in the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.), a foe of civil rights legislation.

Renewed efforts to revise or repeal the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act are in prospect, but just how far they will get is questionable.

The Democrats' campaign pledge to restore rigid, high-level farm price supports and to take other steps to bolster sagging farm income failed to have the voter appeal they had hoped, but they may renew the battle in the new Congress.

Another well-worn issue confronting the new Congress will be statehood for the territories of Hawaii and Alaska. The Republicans as well as the Democrats, are now pledged to immediate statehood for both, although the GOP platform declares that in granting statehood to Alaska, adequate provision must be made for defense requirements.

GOP Candidate
Takes Lead
In Senate Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Republican Thurston B. Morton took the inside track today in a thrilling race to the wire finish with Sen. Earle C. Clements, assistant Democratic floor leader, for a key U.S. Senate seat.

Morton's edge appeared enough to hand Clements his first defeat in 36 years of political life.

Returns from 3,800 of 4,057 precincts gave Morton 475,861 votes, Clements 473,218.

The race — last to be decided in Tuesday's voting — was punctuated with statements implying that each side suspected the other of irregularities.

Clements issued a statement saying: "I have been receiving reports from many counties of peculiarities in this election which make it most difficult to forecast what the vote pattern may be in the uncounted precincts."

Louie B. Nunn, Republican state campaign chairman, countered with the statement that: "We are likewise spending our time trying to find out what is going on in some counties."

Morton's struggle took some of the shine off of President Eisenhower's conclusive sweep of the state and the easy win of John Sherman Cooper in the other Senate race.

Eisenhower was far ahead of the ticket with 516,889 votes to 438,718 for Adlai Stevenson. Cooper, Somerset Republican, was 42,738 votes to the good over former Gov. Lawrence Wetherby.

The Democrats retained a 6-2 edge in the House delegation.

TO HOT SPOT — With war flaring in Egypt, Adm. Walter F. Boone, commander of U.S. Naval forces of the Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean, has transferred his headquarters from London to the USS Pococo in the Mediterranean. The Pococo, an amphibious command ship, is now stationed at Iskenderun, Turkey.

Rides Horse Through
Lobby to Pay Bet

HAYS, Kan. (AP)—F. F. Wasinger rode through the lobby of the Lamer Hotel on horseback yesterday to pay off an election bet. He bet Democrat George Docking wouldn't be elected governor. He was.

Intercontinental
Missile to Be Fired
From Coast Locations

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The builder of the Air Force's Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile said today locations in southern California and Florida were being made ready for initial launching tests.

Convair Division of General Dynamics Corp. said a facility here, where the missile's rocket engines will be given short trials, is expected to go into operation in the immediate future.

The engines and other units will be given further tests at Edwards Air Force Base in the Mojave Desert before the initial launching from Patrick Air Force Base, Fla.

From there, the missile will be fired at a target far in the South Pacific. It is designed for flight across oceans and continents.

It could carry a nuclear or other bomb against an enemy.

Convair said that it was also combining "research and development leading toward space travel" with the Atlas project. This will be centered at the 40-million-dollar Convair-Astronautics production plant, now under construction in San Diego.

Flavored Victorian Dessert for Dinner

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor
Late Victorian cook books usually give recipes for a puffy dessert called a "foam," "snow," or "sponge." Fruit-flavored and made with egg whites—with or without gelatin — this light-as-air conceit must have "eat" well after those old-fashioned, large and heavy dinners.

Recently we served such a sweet on a Sunday dinner menu whose main offering was a meat roast. It made a most appealing ending. With the Snow comes a silky-smooth Custard Sauce and to color that a rich yellow we used a kitchen trick.

This recipe for a Snow is modernized: lemon-flavored gelatin is used and the gelatin and egg whites are beaten together. In less up-to-date rules, gelatin and egg whites are beaten separately.

The Snow may be piled into a pretty glass bowl and served from it. Or it may be put into individual molds; after it has set, it may be turned out of the molds and it will keep its shape. If you have half-cup size molds with a small indentation in the center, you can use this center "cup" to hold some of the Custard Sauce and spoon more of the sauce around the Snow. When we served the dessert this way, we unmolded them on a flat plate and placed them (with a wide spatula) in shallow blue bowls. The white of the Snow, flecked with pine apple yellow, and the golden custard sauce contrasted very prettily indeed with the china.

PINEAPPLE SNOW

Ingredients: 1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin, salt, 1 cup very hot water, canned pineapple juice and water to make 1 cup, 2 egg whites, 1 cup well-drained canned crushed pineapple, Golden Custard Sauce.

Method: Add gelatin and salt to very hot water; stir until gelatin dissolves. Add the 1 cup mixed pineapple juice and water. Chill until slightly thickened. Place bowl firmly in larger bowl of ice and water. Add egg whites and whip with rotary beater (hand or electric) until fluffy and thick. (Volume should be at least tripled.) Fold in drained pineapple. Pour into large bowl (about 2 quarts) or into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold, or serve from bowl with Golden Custard Sauce. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

Note: Cover and refrigerate any leftover desserts; they will stand up well for 1 or 2 days. If a No. 2 can (1 pound and 4 ounces) of crushed pineapple is used, there will be about 1/2 cup of the drained pineapple left over.

GOLDEN CUSTARD SAUCE
Ingredients: 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch, 3/4 cup sugar, 3 cups milk, salt, 2 egg yolks, 1 teaspoon vanilla, turmeric.

Method: Put cornstarch and sugar in a saucepan (about 2 quarts); add a little of the milk and stir until smooth. Stir in remaining milk and a dash of salt. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until bubbly and thickened. Beat egg yolks slightly; stirring constantly and vigorously, gradually add a little of the hot mixture to the beaten yolks; stir back into saucepan. Cook and stir over low heat for a few minutes. Place over cold water, stirring occasionally. Add vanilla. Stir in turmeric, pinch by pinch, until sauce is a golden color. Cover and refrigerate. Makes about 3 1/4 cups sauce.

State Records Show 100,000 New Drivers

During the first nine months of 1956, 100,000 new drivers have taken the wheel in Missouri.

The Missouri Highway Patrol superintendent, Col. Hugh H. Waggoner, says that records of the Patrol's driver examination section offer proof of the ever-increasing congestion on our highways, and indicate an equally increasing traffic safety problem.

The Patrol's driver license examiners have given a total of 270,263 examinations during the first nine months of this year. One hundred and ten thousand of these examinations were given to new drivers. Persons from other states who became residents of Missouri accounted for 40,000 examinations.

Col. Waggoner said, "Our records show that of those who complete the examination, about 30 per cent fail on the first attempt. Most of these pass the examination on later attempts. With these figures it is clear that new drivers and new residents have added at least 100,000 more drivers in Missouri during the first nine months of this year."

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT

Serves the Liveliest, Most Productive Territory in Central Missouri

Second Section Sedalia, Missouri Thursday, Nov. 8, 1956

souri during the first nine months of this year."

"It is not difficult to believe," he said, "that a total of 120,000 to 130,000 new drivers will be reached before the end of the year."

About 35 uniformed members of the Patrol are assigned to Drivers License Examinations. They are aided by trained civilian examiners.

Besides the new driver and new resident examinations; 64,470 examinations were given to persons who failed to renew their license before the expiration deadline, and 277 persons were cited to take special examinations. The total examinations given by the Patrol in the nine month period is greater than the total given during all of 1955.

Sad Case

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP) — The case of the Petoskey Grocery Co. against the Adams Grocery Co. finally has disappeared from the Emmet County Circuit Court docket. It had appeared regularly four times a year for 19 years.

All principals are dead. The firms have been dissolved. The original judge also died. Judge Edward H. Fenlon finally threw it out but observed sadly that "the docket won't seem the same now."

Sage Signs

Double Daring Thieves

GUTHRIE, Okla. — Police have no doubt that the burglars who cracked the safe of a supermarket here were Jaring. They did their work in the front window of the store where anyone walking by could see them.

Steve Douglas, the store manager, said the thieves actually were double-daring. They braved two vials of tear gas attached to the safe, that went off. The burglars stole several hundred dollars.

Whiteman Unit Moves To New Buildings

One more of Whiteman Air Force Base's antiquated relics of World War II vintage has been vacated by a base service in favor of a more modern place of operations.

Transportation Squadron is no longer located at its old site just inside of the North gate of this Strategic Air Command installation. The new military dispatch office, vehicles, administrative section and driver training school are now situated in modern buildings after operating since 1952 when Whiteman was reactivated in buildings that were used when the present home of the 340th Bomb Wing was a glider training base during the second world conflict.

The former headquarters of the Transportation facilities was a definite eyesore in addition to being the first building to be seen as persons drove onto the base via the North gate. Plans are now under way to destroy the old building and provide landscaping which will furnish a more attractive view upon entering the base through the North entrance.

There Is Variety in Brussels Sprouts

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Let Brussels sprouts, Tom Thumb member of the cabbage family, lend variety to menus. The English, who seem to dote on this vegetable, are teased for serving it in one fashion: plain boiled. Americans, with their customary energy, are inclined to offer the miniature heads in various ways. Here for your delectation are two recipes.

But one admonishment! Cook Brussels sprouts only until tender-crisp; this way they'll retain their pretty green color and have a delicate flavor and interesting texture. Your reward for this care in cooking, will be the pleasure with which the sprouts will be greeted at your table.

Brussels Sprouts Au Gratin
Ingredients: 1 pint basket (¾ to 1 pound) Brussels sprouts, boiling water, salt, Cheese Sauce, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup soft bread crumbs.

Method: Wash Brussels sprouts in cold water; remove wilted leaves and soak in salted water about 20 minutes. Rinse and place in a saucepan with 1 inch of boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point; boil 3 minutes without cover. Cover and boil until tender-crisp — 10 to 20 minutes. Drain, if necessary, and then place in baking dish (1 quart), alternating layers of sprouts with Cheese Sauce. Melt butter and mix with bread crumbs. Sprinkle crumbs over the top of vegetable and sauce. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until bubbly hot — 20 minutes or longer. If topping isn't browned, dish may be placed under broiler for a minute or so. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

CHEESE SAUCE
Ingredients: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, ¾ cup grated sharp cheddar cheese.

Method: Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk; cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until bubbly and thickened. Remove from heat. Add salt, pepper to taste, grated lemon rind and grated cheese. Stir until cheese melts. If necessary, place sauce over very low heat and stir constantly.

Ingredients: 1 quart basket (about 2 pounds) Brussels sprouts, boiling water, salt, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons slivered blanched almonds.

Method: Wash Brussels sprouts in cold water; remove wilted leaves and soak in salted water about 20 minutes. Rinse and then place in a saucepan with 1 inch of boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point; boil 3 minutes without cover. Cover and boil until tender-crisp — 10 to 20 minutes. Drain, if necessary. Melt butter in a small skillet (6 or 7 inches); add almonds; brown almonds slowly stirring often. Sprinkle almonds with salt to taste. Pour over Brussels sprouts; toss lightly. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

Your Gift Serves A Purpose

Solicitation of money for the welfare of less fortunate persons can be discouraging when volunteer workers meet with an icy reception.

Of course there are conditions in which the person solicited may have already given personally to someone else, or husband or wife may have arranged to give through the payroll deduction plan at the office.

Nevertheless canvassers, solicitors — call them what you may — deserve better treatment than they sometimes receive. Theirs is not only a volunteer service but they, too, like the persons they call upon are expected to dig down in their own pocket to support the drive they are working for.

At the moment in Sedalia there is underway the annual United Fund drive to raise $75,000.00 for 19 participating agencies. Progress has been made in the campaign for advanced gifts. The Men's Division is on the last leg of its assigned activity; the Women's Division began making calls last Friday and will continue to do so through November 12.

Any pledge given graciously and generously is bound to be an uplifting and heart warming experience especially in the knowledge that dollars given will buy comfort and hope in the field of community welfare for men, women and children supported by the participating agencies in the United Fund.

To finance these social and welfare services our community needs the help that comes from hearts as well as pocketbooks. Your pledge must be a gift your heart makes, if it is to have fullest meaning.

Let us all give the United Fund for Sedalia and Pettis County our wholehearted support.

Green Candles In Hungary Depict Unrest

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A little man from beleaguered Hungary came to see me the other day. On his left arm was tattooed the number "B.12305," a cruel reminder of his slave days in Hitler's Auschwitz concentration camp. He did not show me the number on his arm. I learned about it by accident, just as I learned the other things about him by accident.

Dr. Bela Fabian, exiled leader of the Democratic Party in Hungary, first came to see me a good many years ago.

In between, a lot of things had happened. Among them, Arkady Sobolev, Soviet delegate to the United Nations, recently denounced Dr. Fabian as "the leader of the anti-Popular underground movement" for which preparation had "begun as early as June 27, 1956."

Sobolev was telling the truth — as far as he knew it. What he didn't know was that Fabian's underground preparation began long before June 27, 1956. It began even before the first time I met him in 1950 when he tipped me off to the fact that the doctor who administered the drug to Cardinal Mindszenty at his trial was now Hungarian minister in Washington. The campaign I waged to force the recall of Dr. Emil Weil from the Hungarian legation was the result of Dr. Fabian's underground intelligence.

Green Candles in the Windows

For years Dr. Fabian had been telling me: "The Hungarian people will revolt. Hungary will be the first country to challenge its Soviet masters. I know my people. I know the unrest among the peasants, even in the army. With a little help from you Hungary will burst into flame."

"But how do you know this?" I pressed him. "You have been away a long time."

"I will give you one clue," was his reply. "The green candles in the windows. Green is the color of the Peasants' Party. It has become the symbol of freedom, the symbol of protest, of revolt. All over Hungary you will see green candles in the windows. The Soviets can't stop them."

"You will also see green paint on the walls — slaps of green paint. It's a symbol. Your Crusade for Freedom has helped this. Your balloons have helped. They have carried messages which keep the spirit of freedom alive. They have spread green all over Hungary. You do not believe me, but the Hungarian people are stirring. They will rise up when the time comes, and they will look to you for help."

Beginning of World War III

Over and over again during the past five years, the gnarled old refugee from Hungary warned me what was coming. He came back last week to remind me of his warning — and to ask for help.

"What can the United States do?" I asked. "You can risk a little blood," he said. "Risk a little blood now, and you save a great deal of blood later."

"This could be the beginning of World War III," he said. "Or it could be the way to head off World War III. It all depends on you. If you let the Hungarian people down there will be no more revolt behind the Iron Curtain. Poland is watching Hungary, Czechoslovakia is watching, Rumania, Bulgaria, Albania — all are watching Hungary."

"You would not believe me when I told you several years ago that the Hungarian people would be the first to rise. But it was true. I told you about the green candles. It was true. I have always told you the truth. I told you about Dr.

Guest Editorial—

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR: All From the Roman Chariot. While we're thinking about improvements in communication which, slowly but surely, are bringing the world closer together, let us not forget one heritage from those extraordinary engineers of ancient Rome.

The highways they built throughout the empire endured through many centuries following. Buried stretches of them are always being dug up here and there. And by accident or design, the "tread" of so many Roman chariots and carts measured the same that the ruts worn in these wonderful roads established a sort of "gauge" which medieval wagon-makers, perforce, had to follow.

The wheel tread was 4 feet, 8½ inches wide. And, theory goes, when early railroad builders put flanges on stage coaches and "wains," the rails they laid had to be 4 feet, 8½ inches apart. Enough of such trackage has been laid during the ensuing years so that when a move toward standardization got under way it swept toward a dimension set, perhaps, in some unknown ancient wheelwright's shop. Today, say the magazine Railway Progress, five-eighths of the world's 300,000 miles of railroads are "standard gauge."

From such little fountains do large streams flow.

What Elections Proved Is Simple Enough

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — What the elections proved seems simple enough, although men who make a living analyzing voting habits will come up with plenty of psychological jargon and seeming profundities.

The voters liked President Eisenhower far more than they did Adlai Stevenson, and more than they liked the Republican party. Otherwise they couldn't see much difference between Democrats and Republicans.

The evidence is plain enough: Eisenhower won overwhelmingly but his Republicans were beaten by the Democrats for control of Congress. The Democrats won by only the tiniest margin, capturing just enough of the 531 seats to take charge.

Nevertheless, the voters have been showing a preference for the Democrats as a party. They elected a Republican Congress with Eisenhower in 1952 but in 1954 and again this year gave the Democrats control.

The Democrats and Republicans — as parties — are almost identical. Both stand for moderate extensions of the New Deal and Fair Deal. Beyond that they don't go. The Republicans, after years of criticizing many of the social measures of Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, took them over lock, stock and barrel although they don't like to acknowledge it.

The Republican party adoption of the Roosevelt-Truman programs means they have caught up with the clock. The New and Fair Deal reforms have become part of the basic fabric of American life.

For their part, the Democrats have moved neither left nor right, as a party. They're right in the middle. The Republicans used to scream the Democrats were socializing the country, but the New and Fair Deal reforms were not radical. The proof is their acceptance by such middle-of-the-road Republicans as Eisenhower.

Neither Democrats nor Republicans now are calling for wide reforms, as the Democrats did in depression days. The reason for that is simple enough too: the country is prosperous and is not expecting or demanding startling changes.

Because Democrats and Republicans are both moderate as parties. Both Democrats and Republicans have right and liberal wings, and both have large conservative center groups.

If anyone doubts the similarities between the two parties, all he has to do is read their campaign platforms and analyze the programs proposed by both Eisenhower and Stevenson during the campaign.

This similarity between the parties can be expected to continue until the country undergoes some deep economic change or until the world position deteriorates badly. Then new forces will form within the country, new needs arise.

Dr. Jordan Says—

Blood Condition Is First To Bow to Radioactivity

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

"Our 29-year-old son," writes Mrs. B. "has what our doctor calls polycythemia. Would you explain this to us?"

I am rather astonished by the number of inquiries I receive concerning polycythemia, since it is considered a fairly rare disorder. Perhaps it is more common than generally realized. Or perhaps those who have some contact with it are puzzled and therefore more likely to inquire about it.

Polycythemia vera (true polycythemia) is a disease in which there are too many red blood cells in the system. In this respect it is the direct opposite of anemia, in which there are too few. The excess of red blood cells may be only slight or there may be twice as many as normal.

The symptoms of polycythemia differ from person to person. A brick-red flushing of the face and hands is often present. Headaches, dizziness and inability to work well are fairly common.

The disease cannot be diagnosed by these symptoms alone, but counting the red blood cells under the microscope is essential.

Polycythemia has been known for many years. Many kinds of treatments have been tried, the most common one being repeated removal of blood from a vein. Such repeated small bleedings do not, of course, cure the condition but do get rid of some of the extra red blood cells.

Other treatments are the use of drugs aimed at destroying some of the excessive red cells. In some cases this kind of treatment has been quite successful.

In recent years phosphorus which has been made radioactive has been used with considerable success.

Phosphorus, of course, is one of the elements, and like many others can be charged with radioactivity by means of the cyclotron or "atom splitting" apparatus. If this is done the phosphorus will give off certain kinds of rays which are commonly called radioactivity. Because the phosphorus loses this radioactivity quite rapidly, however, it is safer than some other radioactive substances.

When given to patients with polycythemia, the phosphorus unites with the red cells and destroys some of them, thus bringing the number down toward normal.

This method of treatment for polycythemia seems to be the best so far developed. Indeed, polycythemia is one of the first diseases for which beneficial results have been obtained as a result of the discoveries in nuclear physics and atomic research. However, even this treatment is not perfect and the search for other and better methods still goes on.

Ruth Millett Says—

To Smooth Marriage Path, Make Proper Allowances

After a few years of marriage some wives seem to forget that the most important thing about a husband is that he is a man.

Being a man, his goals won't always be the same as a woman's cherished plans. But that doesn't necessarily mean that hers are better than his.

Being a man, he won't always think the way she does. But because he stubbornly clings to his masculine way of thinking, that doesn't mean he doesn't "understand" his wife.

Being a man, his ideas on the way children should be brought up may seem harsh to his wife. But that doesn't mean he doesn't love their children as much as she does.

Being a man, he may not be as interested in discussing personalities as his wife is. But because he isn't always interested in her harmless gossip doesn't mean he isn't interested in her.

Being a man, he may not notice the things his wife considers of extreme importance, such as the new curtains in the living room or even her new hairdo. But that doesn't mean he doesn't appreciate his wife.

Being a man, he may not fully realize how much is involved in the job of homemaking. But then, being a woman, his wife probably has only a vague idea of the heavy load of responsibility her husband carries.

Being a man, he may not be as good a listener as his wife would like him to be. But then, she was probably quite willing to do more than her share of the listening before they were married. So why should she expect it to be different just because they are husband and wife?

Husbands aren't nearly so hard to understand if wives will never forget that, first and foremost, a husband is a man.

Israelis Have Won First Battle, But Now What?

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON — Israel's quick military victory in the Sinai peninsula east of the Suez Canal presents an entirely new situation in the Middle East, in the opinion of Washington experts on that area.

The problem is, now that Israeli forces are in possession of the Sinai, how are they to be got out? There is considerable feeling that it will take more than a United Nations resolution to accomplish that.

Heretofore, the great Arab fear of Israel expansion has been that it would be in an easterly direction, across Jordan. Instead, Israel has moved her western boundary 100 miles from the southern Negev desert wedge to the Suez Canal.

By so doing Israel has multiplied her land area in Palestine many times. It can be argued that the new area is a wasteland of no value. But geographically it is most important.

It gives Israel outlets on both the Gulf of Aqaba and the Red Sea. Still more important, it gives Israel a position of control over the Suez Canal, from which its ships had been barred by the Egyptians.

And it greatly enlarges the wedge which separates the African Arab countries from the Asian Arab countries.

It is conceded by military experts that the Israeli maneuver was brilliantly conceived and carried out. It was based on accurate advance intelligence and careful planning.

Egyptian strong points were at first by-passed. Then they were surrounded and put to rout or captured. The bluff of Egypt's military might was both called and checked.

The Egyptians had apparently figured that with the former British bases in the Suez Canal area and with the new tanks, planes and guns from Soviet Russia, they would be invincible. But the Egyptians had no defense plan and they had not been trained for their job.

Two Business Officials Plan Swap 3 Years

BELLFLOWER, Calif. — The president and treasurer of a plastics firm, back from Las Vegas where they swapped wives, say they feel the move "was the best thing for all concerned."

Paul H. Omohundro, 41, who heads the company, and Glenn Capps, 40, disclosed that the switch was worked out carefully during the past three years. The couples have known each other for six years.

"We took a long time working up to this thing," said Omohundro, "so the children would become thoroughly adjusted to the idea."

Omohundro and his ex-wife Rachel are the parents of a 15-year-old girl and an 11-year old boy. Capps and his former wife Mabel have a 13-year-old daughter and an 8-year-old son.

When the wives obtained their divorces simultaneously in Las Vegas Monday each was awarded custody of her children.

"Now the children will have the run of both houses," said Capps, adding that all four parents agreed they would have been doing their children no favor in maintaining the former marital relations simply to keep from breaking up the homes.

Each couple is moving in a New house, about 10 miles apart.

Fast Fry

OWINGSVILLE, Ky. — Sweet potatoes were cooked in a hurry on the electric range in the Robert Toy home.

Lightning struck the pan of potatoes and cooked them to a crisp. The bolt also burned a hole in the pan and damaged the heating element.

So their eastern army was destroyed.

There is no proof, but there is now little doubt in diplomatic circles that Israel Britain and also France acted in concert on this enterprise.

The general belief is that Israel first persuaded France to go along on the adventure. Then the two of them brought Britain in as leading partner.

British, French and Israeli sources refuse comment on the charge — first made by the Russians — that the three powers acted in unison on a plan agreed to in advance.

The Israeli timing was carefully calculated. Coming just before the U. S. elections, it minimized the chance of active American counter-measures. Coming when Russia was involved in Hungary and Poland, the likelihood of Soviet intervention in the Middle East was also reduced.

Much of the Communist military equipment for Egypt was moving through Poland and Hungary, so that supply line was broken.

What students of the Middle East fear more than a Russian move to help Egypt is that the Soviet will take this opportunity of confusion to move into northern Iran, which she has long coveted. That would involve Britain on two fronts.

But now that the first phase of the adventure is completed, the great problem for Britain and France is how they can hold the Suez Canal area without also controlling all Egypt.

Thus, at the end of the first week of this new "police action," the consensus is that while Israeli-British-French forces may have won the first battle in a hurry, there is no assurance that they have won the war.

The three powers now stand with fewer friends in the world. The mood of the United Nations General Assembly as it passed its first resolution "urging" and "recommending" an end to the invasion of Egypt was interpreted as grim and determined.

As one British observer is remarked at the end of the session: "We're in. It will be up to you to get us out."

Any idea that the British, French and Israeli forces attacked for a "temporary occupation" of Egypt is not taken seriously in many informed quarters.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Slip covers on furniture freshen up a room or give a seasonal touch. They add nothing to the physical comfort of the chairs or sofas. They do not change the size of the piece nor the basic use.

People, like furniture, need to be adjusted for the seasons of the year and for the uses to which their lives are put. All of us need to change our attitudes from time to time and to clean up our daily living. We may be basically functioning as religious beings, but our influence may have become ineffective by routine use. We may have become spiritually dusty or faded.

All of us can stand a few sets of slip covers so that we can offer new comforts to our associates who need a changed view of the presence of God in people.

Lincoln Rebekah Lodge presented a special vocal number.

The following officers were elected for 1957: president, Mrs. Sylvia Bell; vice-president, Mrs. Nina Gordon; warden, Mrs. Bessie Goode; secretary, Mary A. Tally; treasurer, Mrs. Beverly Nelson; conductor, Mrs. Opal Allen; marshal, Charlotta Kelly; inside guardian, Mrs. Bernice Wing; outside guardian, Pernelia Eirls, and musician, Mrs. Dorothy Sebastian.

The 1957 district assembly will be held at Warrensburg.

The banquet was served at the Methodist Church at six o'clock. A part of the evening session was open to the public. The LaMonte lodge presented a memorial service for the deceased members and the Holden Lodge presented a drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," which was presented in a very impressive manner.

Lloyd West of Holden sang a special number, "My God and I." The officers for 1957 were installed by Mrs. Sybil Cox, with Mrs. Mildred Cochran, acting as marshal.

MUSICAL MOPPET—Latest entry in the musical prodigy sweepstakes is seven-year-old Joseph Alfidi, of Yonkers, N. Y. He's pictured conducting the Symphony of the Air at rehearsal in New York City. He will make his debut as a symphonic conductor at Carnegie Hall.

The Orphans Home Rebekah Lodge of Warrensburg conferred the Rebekah Degree upon two candidates for membership in the order.

Walter Less Retires After 35 Years Work

Walter Less, California, Mo., retired on Nov. 1, as a rural mail carrier. He started carrying the mail May 16, 1921, at the Lupus Post Office; and carried Route 1 there for 13 years before transferring to Route 1, out of the California Post Office in 1934. He served 125 patrons on his Lupus route and when he retired from the California route he was carrying mail for 127 patrons over a route covering 50 miles.

He was born in Jamestown, July 30, 1896, a son of the late Henry and Emma Less and was married to Miss Catherine Seitz, Jamestown, on Aug. 21, 1922. They have two sons and two daughters, J. H. Less, California, Mo.; Bill Less, advertising manager of a newspaper at South Bend, Ind.; Mrs. Norman Barbour and Mrs. Lawrence Lademann, both of California, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Less have three grandsons and three granddaughters.

Mr. Less is a graduate of the Jamestown high school and was employed as a painter in the Missouri Pacific Railroad Shops in Sedalia after his graduation and later was employed in the Union Station in St. Louis by the Wells Fargo Express Company. He left his work there to join the U. S. Navy during World War I and during this service he made ten sea trips to England and France. Soon after his discharge he became a rural carrier at Lupus.

Mr. Less is a member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, National Rural Letter Carriers Association, American Legion and the I.O.O.F. Lodge. Lawrence Lademann, son-in-law of Mr. Less and a veteran of World War II will carry the mail on Route 1 out of California temporarily until an appointment is made.

Park and Pray
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Parking lots are becoming as important to church here as pews and cloak rooms.

Bigger churches in the downtown area have outgrown their parking lots and have had to buy expensive land for expansion. New churches mark plenty of parking space on the architect's plans.

Fireman's Dilemma
FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP)—Firemen were summoned to a residence where a trash fire had caught a power pole afire. It was the home of Volunteer Fireman Jack Sheafe.
